PHILANTHROPY LEADERS SUMMIT

The Fifth Annual Philanthropy Leaders Summit took place Feb. 5 at Las Vegas City Hall. Founded and led by Moonridge Group, the annual gathering of philanthropy leaders shed insight on initiatives and trends making an impact on the local and national philanthropic landscape. The event, which honored Charles Mathewson with the "Eric Hilton Philanthropy Award," featured best-selling author and creator of an iconic TED Talk Dan Pallotta as keynote speaker.

YUSHENG TOSS

On Feb. 8, Mandarin Oriental Las Vegas hosted a Yusheng Toss to usher in the Year of the Monkey. Meant to bring good luck, health and happiness in the New Year, participants came together to "toss" the dish made up of ingredients that represent a happy life in a delightful and delicious celebration of good fortune. Mandarin Oriental Las Vegas made a donation to the Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health and Keep Memory Alive in the amount of $888. Eight is a number considered to be extremely lucky in Chinese Culture symbolizing prosperity and wealth.
